

Judith Pendrous - Piano

"Judith studied piano at the Royal Northern College of Music, Manchester, with Sulamita Aronovsky, & Art of Teaching with Marjorie Clementi.

She went on to study for her Postgraduate Diploma in Organ Performance at the Royal Academy of Music, London, after which she was Organ Scholar at York Minster.

Judith began teaching both piano & church organ during her time in York, & now has over 25 years of teaching experience.

After some years as Organist & Director of Music at the Birmingham Oratory, she moved to Wales where she is now Organist of St Mary's Priory, Abergavenny, & also works as a freelance pianist & organist.

Judith has a busy teaching practice in Abergavenny, & has also worked as piano tutor for Herefordshire Schools Music Service.

She has been piano tutor at Crickhowell High School since 2006, & has also taught Theory of Music.

Her emphasis as a piano teacher is to ensure that her students develop a solid foundation of understanding, reading skills, & practical skills, enabling them to play with confidence & musicality."
