

Rachel Louise Marsh

Hello I'm Rachel and I am a singing teacher from Cardiff. I absolutely love teaching students of all ages and abilities and specialise in classical, opera, musical theatre and pop singing and there are many choices for my students when starting their singing journey such as learning for fun and building up their vocal technique through the use of appropriate warm ups and fun vocal props or preparing for singing exams in a variety of different genres suited to the student. Either way there is something to suit everyone! Singing lessons with me are very much a personalised experience from the moment the student walks into the room and are each tailored to the individual depending on their goals and needs for development. I also ensure all music chosen is well within the student's capabilities and always include the student in the selection process of their songs.

I studied at The Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama gaining a first class honours BMUS Degree in voice and have been an active singing teacher across South Wales with over 11 years' experience. I developed a passion for teaching singing to both children and adults in my final year of my studies and in 2011 was awarded my dip.ABRSM in Principles of Vocal Teaching by the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music. In 2016 I was ready to develop more as a singing teacher and decided to undertake a course with a certificate in Teaching Young Voices where I was awarded a distinction by Voice Workshop. I have also most recently completed a Voice Care for Singers course with Vocal Health Education as vocal health is something of great importance to me when teaching young voices.

During my career I have had a lot of performance experience in both opera and musical theatre. Currently I am preparing for my next operatic performance as both the Mother and the Witch in Rougemont School and London Opera's production of 'Hansel and Gretel'. I am really looking forward to this performance as the whole project has been so exciting and it's been so wonderful hearing children as young as year 3 singing the songs. I have been lucky enough to win several awards from participating in singing competitions including the Kathleen Ferrier Junior Bursary award, Music in the Vale's Young Singer of the Year and the Abergavenny Eistedfodd. Aside from this I have also had the joy of working as a soloist for many choirs including Crickhowell Choral Society, Llandaff Choral Society and The Cardiff Bach Choir.

You can enquire about singing lesson by contacting marsh_rachel_96@hotmail.com and I look forward to welcoming your child to a lesson soon!